TCHS Goal: Symmetry

Seniors, juniors, and sophomores get an education in typing.

In the Pines of 1965 we wish to emphasize the importance of all activities to the total picture of the school. Just as the symbol would not be complete with one piece missing, a school is not complete unless all phases of education are present. A school must maintain the proper balance of scholarship, athletics, and other extracurricular activities, for all these things contribute to the overall perfection of the school. The well-rounded and successful person participates in service clubs and sports activities, as well as devoting time to his studies. This student realizes the importance of all activities to his full education and to the completeness of the school.

Students Get Their Hands into Every thing

Mr. Herbert Olson catches up on his paper work.

We Salute

Clyde Graichen

Herbert Olson

Norman Pollman

TCHS owes much to Mr. Clyde Graichen, who for 36 years has taught vocational education. He is retiring after a lifetime of service. Mr. Graichen looked for new methods to better education and for four years taught the first aviation course in Michigan schools. His success is evident by the number of his students who have become prominent architects and engineers. Their accomplishments have been his reward, but we would like to laud a dedicated man. Mr. Clyde Graichen, the 1965 Pines is dedicated to you.

Mr. Herbert Olson was instrumental in building the effective vocational education system at TCHS. For 19 years he strove to establish a program training students to take productive roles. As co-op training coordinator, vocational counselor, and English and history instructor, he sought to give his students the best education possible. Mr. Olson, at one time, served TCHS as adviser to the Watchbird. Earlier this year, he resigned as vocational and adult director to continue his career of service in Royal Oak, Michigan. For your dedicated and selfless service, we dedicate the 1965 Pines to you, Mr. Herbert Olson.

Seldom do we find such concern for students as has been shown by Mr. Norman Pollman. He entered TCHS in 1958 after 35 years of previous service in other school systems. He has always been unselfish in donating his time to school activities. For 26 years he served as athletic coach and, during his stay at TCHS, he has given invaluable service as Pep Club adviser. Mr. Pollman helped produce the highly successful Tro-Gi Talent Show this year, and for the benefit of the community, he also directed the Year of the Tiger Fashion Show. In addition, he has taught government, economics, and other courses. After 42 years of service, he retires this year. We salute a great man by dedicating the 1965 Pines to you, Mr. Norman Pollman.

Today's Candidates

Make Tomorrow's Leaders

TCHS' new principal, Mr. Lawler, points out parliamentary procedure to the school's incoming lieutenant governor and governor, Jeff Hayes and Len Hawley.

Leaders of the next graduating class, Treasurer Stewart Reed, President Steve Lockman, Secretary Linda Hamrick, and Vice-president Roland MacEachran decide on senior announcements.

Secretary D'Arcie Oatley jots down notes at a summit meeting of the junior class officers, Bill Bjork, president, Jim Batsakis, vice-president, and Bob Guyot, treasurer.

President Tom Lardie, Vice-president Ross Overbeck, Secretary Marg Bellfy, and Treasurer Bill Smith meet with the '67 class adviser, Mr. Ronald Gray, to discuss the future of TCHS' newest faces.

Our Fair Lady Reigns

The TCHS football players nominated five senior girls to represent them for 1964 homecoming. The student body had the difficulty of choosing among Cathy Wheeler, Kay Youker, Barb Muse, Elaine Johnson, and Kathy Hagen. The single yellow rosebud corsage revealed to Barb Muse that she was "our fair lady." Coach Bacon received the crown from little Rudy Raftshol to coronate Queen Barb after a 34-0 Trojan victory over Holland.

Over '64 Homecoming

The annual Snake Dance stretches both arms and enthusiasm for homecoming.

Len Hawley sparks the fire that singed Holland's effigy. The next night we burned them out 34-0.

Exchange Students

My name is Nora King. I'm an exchange student from Uruguay on the Youth for Understanding exchange program. I am living with the Raftshol family. Traverse City is a very nice place. I especially like the high school and its activities.

In Uruguay the school system is different from here. There are four years of high school, and we graduate when we are sixteen years old. This is why they don't teach driving at school, because we can't have our driving license until we are eighteen.

I find that American people have a very active life. What I like most is that they are very friendly and ready to help me whenever I need help.

My hobbies are swimming, tennis, and listening to good music. I hope skiing will be one too.

Of all the subjects I take, the one I enjoy best is humanities. It is a completely new thing to me, for we don't get it in Uruguay. My favorite things are cherry pie, salad dressing, American cars, and sweatshirts.

I will always remember my stay in America as a wonderful experience. I think it is the wish of every exchange student that American people should know and understand other ideas and customs.

My name is Torbjorn Sandberg. But most Americans couldn't pronounce my first name, so I changed it to Toby.

I live in southern Sweden, just across from Copenhagen, Denmark. I live there with my family, which consists of Mom, Dad, and two sisters, 20 and 15 years old. I'm in between them, many times a very good position. Here in the U.S. I live with the Frantz family at 422 Sixth Street. They're a very nice family with three sons and one daughter, all of them lots of fun.

I like your ski areas around here. Where I live in Sweden we have the snow, but not the hills. Therefore, I've taken every chance to ski I've had. Furthermore, I like the school with its spirit, my family, the Big Boy, your big, smooth cars, Tanz Haus, and the choir. Shortly said: I like it here and enjoy every minute of it.

The people over here in the U.S. are very nice and friendly. You feel welcome wherever you go: to church, stores, clubs, school, everywhere.

What I'm going to miss most? Your pies, especially banana, your friendliness, your cars, the Big Boy, and Holiday ski area.

Hope to see you again! Until then . . . take it easy!

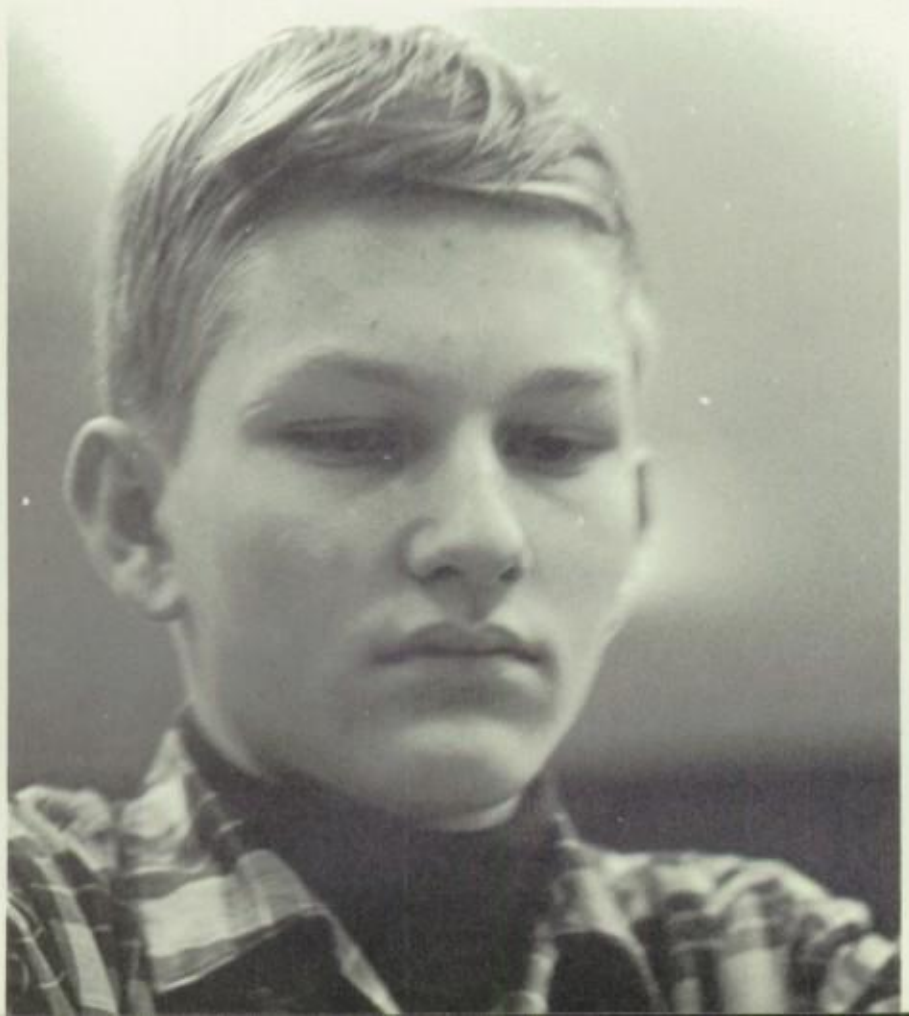
Enrich Traverse City

I am Eva Svensson from a city called Sundsvall in the northern part of Sweden. Sundsvall is three times bigger than Traverse City, but the two cities remind me very much about each other, because they are both situated around a bay. I like Traverse City very much because of its marvelous beaches and good skiing facilities. Where I live we have at least as much snow as you have, but unfortunately the hills are too rocky to be good for down hill skiing, so we ski mostly cross country instead. Besides skiing and swimming, I enjoy reading, theater, concerts, and traveling.

This year I am staying with the Youker family. My Swedish family consists of six persons: my father, who is a veterinarian, my mother, my three sisters, and me.

American schools seem to be somewhat easier than Swedish schools, because American students are fortunate enough to choose themselves what they want to study. Swedish students have to choose one out of the main three combinations and have to take at least three foreign languages to be able to graduate.

Though we have to take gym every year we do not stress sports and other extra-curricular activities. We study up to thirteen subjects, and go to school on Saturdays. Only a minority graduate, and it is not uncommon to have to repeat a year. Being an exchange student, I will miss a year of school, but I think the experience I have gained will more than make up for it.



My name is Manfred Sommer. I stay here with the Scranton family under the Y.F.U. program. My home town Bremen in northern Germany is the size of Boston.

Going to school in the afternoon, having lunch at school, and missing real fall, Christmas, and Easter vacations required quite some adjustment.

While I take about thirteen subjects at home, I experience six different courses here. I find that in American literature and senior math 127 the teaching methods are pretty "German." Humanities, my favorite class, driver's education, and U.S. government, the class I regard as most important for all students, are completely new to me.

My favorite club, the Varsity Club, the Ski Club, and the A.F.S. Club made my free time a "great time." The N.H.S. emphasized the academic aspect of school life.

It was a privilege for me to be the first historian of the Student Council and to be a member of the Investigation Committee, which created the Student Court.

I want to express my gratitude to your great principal, Mr. Lawler, his excellent teaching staff, and the entire student body, especially the seniors. The only wish I have, while I am just about to leave TCHS, is to return to Michigan as soon as possible.

I am Lone Jacobsen from Copenhagen, Denmark. I am in the United States on an American Field Service International Scholarship. For several years it was my great wish to go to America, so when the time came, I was very happy to go, and I expected much. I didn't get disappointed at all. My stay in Traverse City with the A. Kent Schafers on 7341 East Shore Road is a wonderful experience. I enjoy the school, though it's very different from the "gymnasium" I attended in Denmark. The relations between the teachers and students are very informal here, which I think is a favor. The clubs are very well developed and are adding much of importance to the school atmosphere. This is something I will miss when I get home. I will be home in Denmark in August after a four week trip around the states.

Back and Forth with AFS

The local adult chapter of the American Field Service, teachers, and upperclassmen interviewed eight TCHS juniors for the Americans Abroad Program. From this group, the committee selected Rick Stulen and Connie Spencer. The committee sent their applications to the New York AFS office. This office notified Rick in March that he was a semi-finalist with the program. If AFS can find Rick a home overseas for the summer, TCHS will enjoy his programs next year, as much as it enjoyed last year's finalist Jean Bjork's experiences in Turkey.

Middle right, Bob St. John, Jim Pulcipher, and Gary LaMott sport the outfits that won for best-dressed males. Right, Linda Raczkowski, Joe Sobkowski, Gary Safronoff, and Dana Hager placed after first-place Sandy Brown and Dan Scott for the best-costumed couple.

A personal appearance by the Beatles (faculty members Woody Hansen, Jim Ooley, Ed Schuknecht, and David Dye) shook up the talent show audience.

Madrigal members Sandy Stricker, Kim Murchie, Charlene Scranton, Tim McGrew, Gail Olson, Howard Cook, Anne Marie Raftshol, Ken Racht, BACK; Randy Bright, Bob Purvis, Mary Lou Paxton, Jeff Hayes, Ken Leismer, and Georgene Wilson, FRONT, favorite entertainers in the community, add their touch to the talent show.

The "Tro-Gi Talent Show" was the Bo-Gi Club's biggest project for the year. TCHS and TC St. Francis students provided the acts, Anne Marie Raftshol wrote the script, Jim Kroupa, Bo-Gi president, was student chairman, Mr. Norman Pollman directed the show, and Mr. David Dye coordinated the program. The two evening performances and two matinees given January 6, 7, and 8 were attended by over 2,600 people. The show's success gave one thousand dollars towards a new Bo-Gi building.

Bell-ringers Tom Stokes, Marsha Sporre, and Bob Purvis make six bells and a belle of the group.

Adair Correll sings a solemn ballad about Hattie Carroll.

Echoes of a Roar

The senior class play, "The Mouse That Roared," was a huge success. Six weeks of hard work led up to the final nights, November 20 and 21. The play was so well done that the cast was asked to repeat its performance for the T.C. State Hospital. Sue Elsenheimer and Marcia Page played the female leads as "Glorianna the Twelfth," opposite Jim Harris and John Harbeson as "Tully Bascomb." Upper right, Thespian Adviser Woody Hansen stands by his stalwart aids, Stage Manager Tom Grapes and Student Director Mary Roxburgh. Middle right, the victorious high constable of Grand Fenwick speaks to his charges on his homeward return. Lower left, Tully Bascomb (Jim Harris) and Glorianna the Twelfth (Sue Elsenheimer) relax after their performance. Lower right, the entire cast poses for a final picture as the last echo of the Mouse's Roar dies away into the land of memory.

Two full houses enjoyed the March 19 and 20 performances of "The Diary of Anne Frank," sponsored by the junior class. Assisting Director Woody Hansen were MSU extern Robert Warner, Student Director Mary Roxburgh, and Stage Manager Tom Grapes. Sharing dual roles were Janine Gibeau and Mary Lou Paxton as Anne, Mimi Cowell and Marcia Page as Miep, Sue Elsenheimer and Harriet Rumble as Margot, Carol Cowell and Anne Marie Raftshol as Mrs. Frank, Denyse Schultz and Mariann Ingwersen as Mrs. VanDaan, Paul Wilbur and John Russell as Peter, Steve Hanna and Jim Jurica as Mr. Frank, Mike Orr played Mr. VanDaan, Tim McGrew played Mr. Dussel, and Bill Reynolds played Mr. Kraler.

Senior class officers led the Grand March, while Adviser Arthur Schubert and Prom Chairman Lee Marnett initiated program dances which permitted changes of dance partners. The "Harry Dale Orchestra" was proclaimed the best prom band in recent years.

Tales Tell of

The eighth annual Pep-a-Rama Week, staged February 1-5, revolved around the theme of legends and myths. This week honored the basketball team and, for the first time, the ski teams, and aroused a feeling of school spirit and student co-operation. Although the Pep Club sponsored Pep-a-Rama, the entire student body participated this year in the preparation and activities. Under the direction of Linda Hall, general chairman, and June Lentner, co-chairman, various interclass competitions were slated during the week.

The winning snow sculpture of the juniors depicted a Trojan lighting the fire to stew the Mona Shore Sailors and the Muskegon Tigers.

Trojan Triumphs

The seniors adopted the tale of King Arthur and the Knights of the T-Table for their class theme. They designed their snow sculpture and wing decorations after King Arthur's stately castle. Their motto was "Just as the spirit made by the three witches helped King Arthur conquer the dragon, so the spirit of the student body will help the Trojans defeat Muskegon and Mona Shores.

The juniors selected the legend of Tarzan, fabricating it into the legend of Trozan. Decorating their wing like a jungle, they constructed exotic trees, cannibals, and wild animals. "We catch 'em. We beat 'em. We cook 'em. We eat 'em," the juniors motto, expressed the school's assurance in defeating its basketball opponents.

Robin Hood and His Merry Trojans, the sophomores' theme, stimulated the underclassmen's pep. They sculptured Brother John out of snow and reconstructed Sherwood Forest in their wing.

"Behold the little pot which man has sat on so smugly for centuries . . ."

With two hundred students involved in its production, "Finian's Rainbow" played to approximately three thousand people throughout its six performances. The musical comedy has a double plot: the Negroes' struggle to preserve their rights, and a fantasy involving an Irish leprechaun and two love stories. The cast included Kay Kinney and Charlene Scranton as

Years of Work!

The 1965 seniors were pretty important people during their last high school days. They had their exams June 1 and 2, before the underclasssmen. Friday, June 4, was official senior Skip Day. The class first appeared in their caps and gowns Sunday evening, June 6, for baccalaureate. The annual Swing Out preceded the Class Day program, when awards and scholarships were announced. The Class of '65 gathered for the last time as it lined up for commencement exercises June 10. After receiving their diplomas they headed for the class party at Gilbert Lodge.

Core Council

A summer extension of the student governing body is the Core Council. Its members met bi-weekly to organize school activities for the fall. The Council published the student handbook, oriented new students, and set up the student election schedule.

Governor Len Hawley, Lt. Governor Jeff Hayes, and Student Council Secretary Norma Bailey plan their next executive committee meeting.

Ponders, Plans, and Produces

Student Council

The Student Council's purpose is to create a closer relationship among the administration, the faculty, and the student government. Governor Len Hawley and Lt. Governor Jeff Hayes, led the student government. The Council organized the honor study halls, the opening of the school library on Monday nights, the beginning of the Pledge of Allegiance each morning, and the establishment of two student assemblies. Also, Council committees sold sweatshirts and stationery bearing the school seal, placed magazines in the study halls, and developed an exchange of students with another school. A few of the Council's main goals were to improve the relations between TCHS, the community and its schools and to help the school's vocational programs and drop-out problem.

The '65 Pines staff worked diligently Mondays and Saturday mornings and in between at workshops to complete spreads for approaching deadlines. The staff members decided to continue last year's precedent of advertising and summer delivery. The book has more pages this year, some of which provided a new student-faculty index.

-'65 Year on Paper

Black & Gold and Pines workers readily agree that producing a publication is not a small job.

Black and Gold

Sandy Conroy, Black&Gold editor, types up the latest news.

Reporting the important school activities for the year of '64-'65 was a job for the Black & Gold staff under the leadership of Editor-in-Chief Sandy Conroy and Adviser A. V. Williams. The newspaper contains editorials, features, news, and sports, which includes "Varsity Profiles." Attendance at journalism conferences and aid from the Press Club created a better bi-weekly paper.

Secretary Shirley Hagelberg, President John Royce, Treasurer John Boquist, and Vice-President Don Willman solicit speakers for the next NHS initiation.

The National Honor Society exists primarily to promote scholarship. The faculty chooses the members for scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Only two and one half percent of each of the junior and senior classes are honored each semester by membership. The NHS programmed the fall academic awards assembly, as well as the two candlelight initiation ceremonies. NHS members took over the task of compiling the honor roll. The NHS sponsored movies, a Christmas candy cane sale, cupcake sales, and a dance to raise funds to further promotion of scholarship.

Music Varsity

New at TCHS this year was the Music Varsity Club. Students were eligible for membership after earning a varsity letter in the music department. The club formed to increase interest in music and to maintain respect for music varsity awards. Hilarious costumes marked initiates walking to classes on the day of their initiation.

Officers Chuck Herbert, John Bragg, Judy Lemcool, Sandy Findley, Georgene Wilson, and Tom Killman, clockwise, organized the new Music Varsity Club.

Staffs Communicate

Press Club

The Press Club consists of students interested in journalism who can't take the journalism course. The main objective of the club is to aid in the production of the Black & Gold. Also, the members earn money through the sale of programs at games to finance journalism trips and to purchase equipment for Black & Gold production.

The Press Club accomplished many things this year. The club members prepared, folded, and sold programs at all home and tournament games. They wrote and prepared the editorial page and the feature page of the Black & Gold. Besides sponsoring a dance after the final basketball game, the club financed a trip to a press conference at Central Michigan University and an overnight trip to a conference at the University of Michigan.

WTCS

Student radio station WTCS has seen three successful years since its organization in 1962. At this time, Mike Bradford, Terry Groesser, and Mr. Dean Davenport formed WTCS to promote interest in the radio profession. While the students and faculty are being entertained, the members are receiving "on the job training."

Activities of the radio station in the past school year have been the regular morning broadcast from 8:00-8:25, the morning announcements at 10:35, and dinner music from 11:50-1:20. At night, on WTCM, there was Swing Shop from 8:06-9:00 and the Saturday morning Fabulous Forty Teen Show from 10:00- noon, on WCCW. A local TV-Radio workshop was organized for WTCS members.

Challenger

Again the Challenger, TCHS' literary magazine, published fall and spring issues. The Challenger staff solicits creative writing from both senior high and junior high students, edits the material, publishes it, and sells the finished magazines. The staff, headed by Jeanne Moss, senior editor, Nancy Sporre, junior editor, and Mrs. Betty Parker, adviser, met weekly. Helping greatly were the poetry, fiction, light essay, and serious essay section editors. The seniors take the responsiblity of the year's first issue, then help the underclassmen in the spring. This method insures an experienced staff for the next year.

Co-op offers vocational training to ambitious seniors. These students are placed in local stores, hospitals, gas stations, and libraries to gain experience in their chosen vocation. After four hours of school each day, they are dismissed to their jobs where they put in forty-eight hours a week. The forty-four members honored their retiring adviser, Mr. Herbert Olson, and welcomed next year's adviser, Mr. Wilbur McMath, at a banquet. The members selected Kathy Scott as president, Jim Hains as vice-president, Sue Braden as secretary, and Woody Campbell as treasurer.

Taking the leadership and responsibility of the Pep Club are officers Elaine Johnson, secretary, Jean Bjork, president, Nancy Cornwell, treasurer, and Kay Youker, vice-president.

Where There Are Pep Clubbers

Besides carrying on their regular activities, the Pep Club added new ones to its list. Pep Club ran concessions for Trojan games, the NMC basketball games, and tournaments. Members sold season tickets, pins, and ribbons. The club sponsored the "Trojan Tromp," "Mom and Dad's Nights, the Snake Dance at Homecoming, Pep-a-Rama, and pep assemblies. A Christmas tea at Shield's for members was an innovation this year. The band received new Homecoming music, and the cheerleaders received new uniforms and megaphones from Pep Club funds. Pep Club members were rewarded for their hard work by a bus trip to a Trojan football game at Holland.

Pep Club Council consists of officers, cheerleaders, and representatives from each class. Members are V. Purvis, C. Thompson, C. Crandall, P. Brace, L. Klaasen, C. Klotzbach, N. Hadley, B. Martin, J. Goss, front; R. Sorensen, S. Mihulka, E. Johnson, K. Youker, middle; J. Bjork, and N. Cornwell, back.

Youths

Members of Hi-Y received the opportunity to gain training in leadership and responsibility for the places they will someday occupy in the community. This year's projects incorporated raising $104.00 for the March of Dimes, soliciting for the Michigan Heart Association and the American Cancer Society, helping with the YMCA membership campaign, and extending the YMCA gym program for elementary school boys. Also, the Hi-Y Club traveled to the annual Youth Legislature in Lansing, the UN Conference, the State Council meetings, and the away football games.

Leading the Hi-Y through its second year of activities were Britton Sanford, chaplain, David Easling, president, Steve Bursian, vice-president, and, seated, Paul Biederman, secretary, and Dale Manty, treasurer.

President David Easling discusses a future service project with the Hi-Y members.

Create, Maintain, and Extend

President Mary Lou Paxton inspires her fellow members with plans for a new project.

Tri-Hi-Y began its second year by scheduling various new service projects. These worthwhile activities included reading to and visiting with the residents of the Solem Nursing Home, leading the Easter Seal Drive, Christmas caroling at the State Hospital, and participating in the Michigan Heart Month service project. Through this combination of work and fun, the Tri-Hi-Y strove to fulfill its motto, "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character."

Treasurer Sarah Gaunt, Vice-President Linda Hall, President Mary Lou Paxton, Chaplain Sharon Mihulka, and Secretary Barb Muse formed the nucleus of Tri-Hi-Y.

Thespians

The Thespians, under the direction of Mr. "Woody" Hansen, initiated their active dramatic season with the staging of "The Mouse That Roared." In addition to two performances at TCHS, this successful two-act comedy was presented at the Traverse City State Hospital. The Thespians deserve much credit for aiding in the productions of the class plays, Bo-Gi talent show, and musical. The members assisted in lighting, props, scenery, and student management. To recognize the club's achievements and to honor the fifteen members who gained membership into the National Thespians Society, a spring banquet was held.

Humanities Club

Tim McGrew, Mary Lou Paxton, Nancy Cornwell, Sally Smith, Sally Pike, Steve Ballance, Bill Reynolds, Mary Satter, Marsha Sporre, Becky Bisel, Bob Purvis, Earl Hamilton and Lee Marnett are interested in the advancement of humanity.

The Humanities Club, an informal organization with no actual officers, dues, or permanent membership, conducts informative discussions and sponsors lectures on topics of interest to humanities students. This year the club discussed books including Baldwin's A FIRE NEXT TIME and Camus' THE STRANGER. Lectures on Zen Buddhism, folk music, and music appreciation highlighted the club's activities.

Taste for Culture

Philaedians

For artistic students, the Philaedians provide an opportunity to develop and utilize their cultural talents. Although this year's new club lacked size, it engaged in such vigorous projects as sponsoring a dance, selling posters to various organizations, and exhibiting their works at an art show. Ted Thirlby, president, and Nancy Hammond, secretary, were at the head of the organization.

Analyzing silk screens are Judy Ball, Terry Miller, Nancy Pestolis, Ted Thirlby, Carol Homan, Philip Keegstra, Mary Kiser, Lloeta Thompson, Betsy Sleder, and Nancy Hammond.

Chess Club

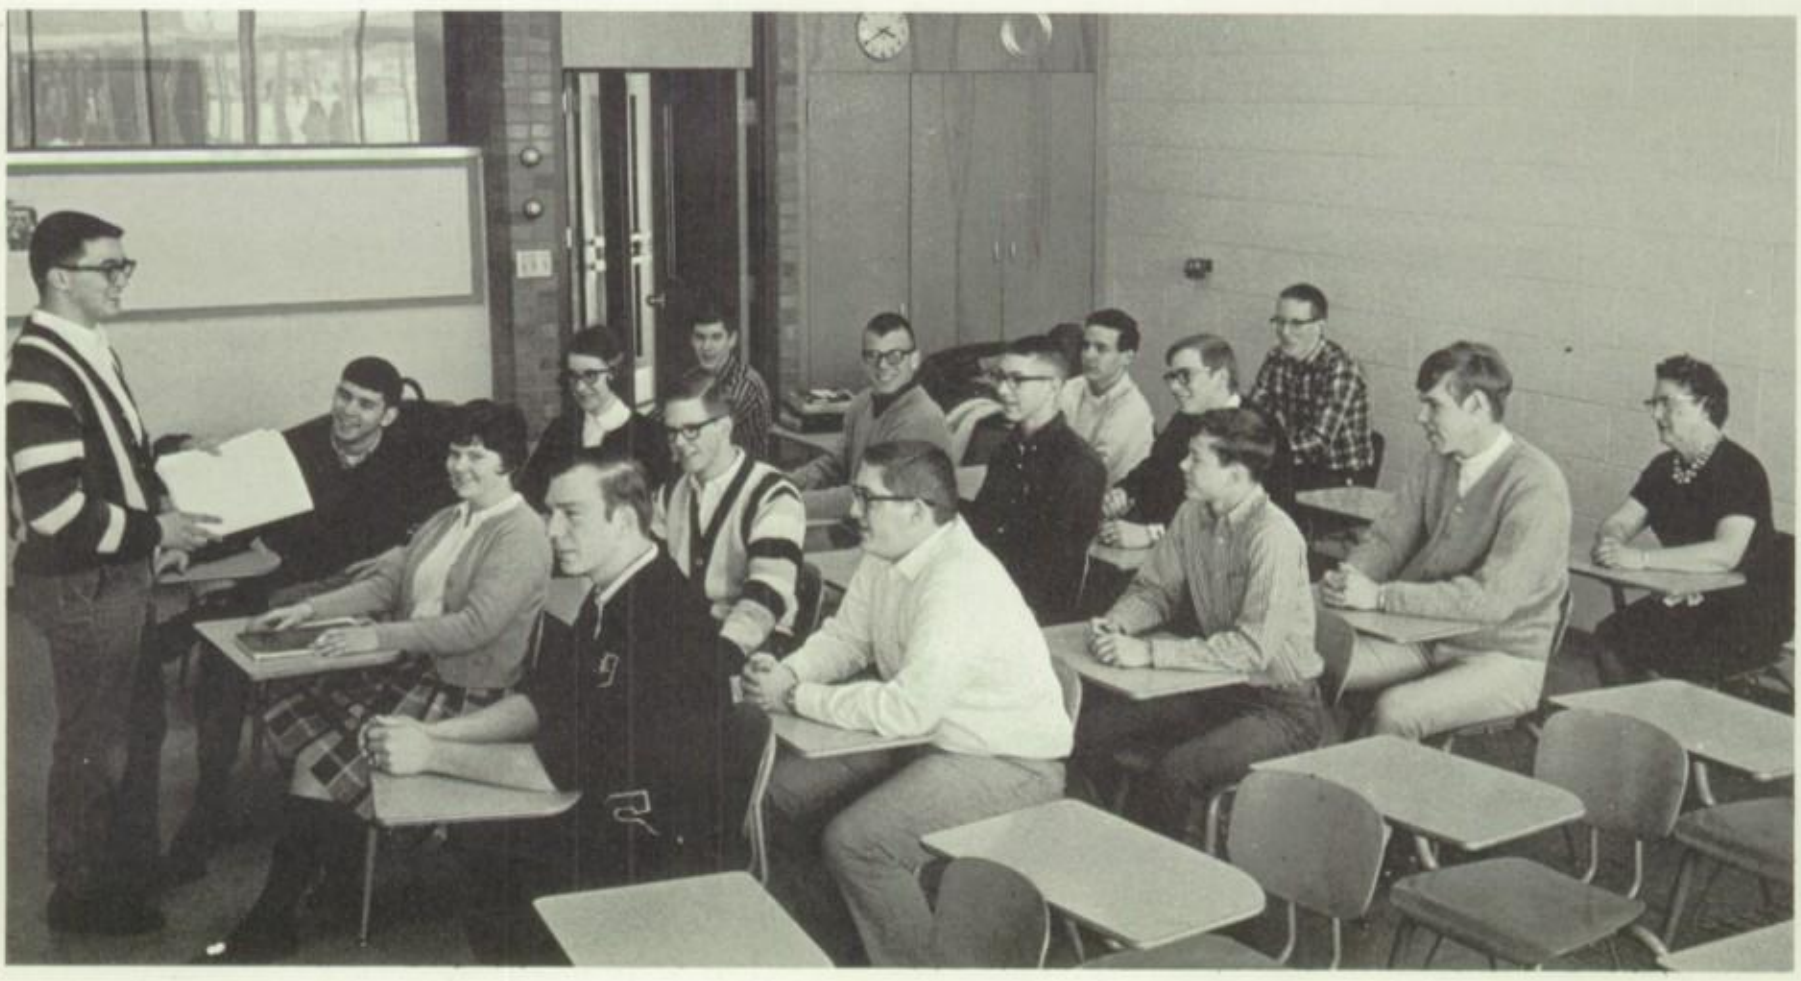
During its second year, the Chess Club met weekly to improve individual games and to give the members a chance to compete with others. This year an inner club tournament was held proving to be very interesting and worthwhile. The club consisted of about a dozen players headed by President Dave Gaumer, Treasurer John Kennedy, Secretary Roger Rayle and Adviser Lyndon Salathiel.

Dave Gaumer, Sue Grabe, Tom Novak, and John Kennedy observe Tim Foley's move against Roger Rayle.

Multiple Interests Hold

The Penmen

A writing club, The Penmen, was organized this year under the supervision of Mrs. Wynn Bade. Meeting informally once a week, the members criticized each other's works to improve their writing skills. The club subscribed to a student magazine for ideas of the writing capabilities of students across the nation. President Bob Dixon, Vice-President Bob Beery, and Secretary-Treasurer Ann Ballance led the club's activities.



The American Field Service Club has two specific purposes: to raise funds to send a TCHS junior overseas for the summer on the Americans Abroad Program, and to stimulate interest in foreign cultures among the students. Swedish cookie sales, Danish cookie sales, and French cream puff sales brought in money, besides giving the members a chance to try out foreign recipes. The five visiting exchange students, as well as the TCHS students who lived with families in Europe last summer on the American Field Service and Youth for Understanding programs, presented evening programs at members' homes. Special highlights of the year were delicious potlucks, where each member served a delicacy native to some part of the world. Mr. Arthur Schubert made an appropriate adviser after his year of teaching in New Zealand.

President Jeanne Moss, Treasurer Sally Smith, and Secretary Rita Sorensen demonstrate the AFS Club's interest in other parts of the world.

Projects undertaken this year by the F.T.A. Club include an annual trip to Mt. Pleasant for a state meet with other F.T.A. chapters, films, guest speakers, and sending two delegates to the state meet in St. Mary's Lake, Battle Creek.

In March Russ Broad and Jerry Stricker represented Traverse City at the state FFA convention in Lansing. The principal April activity was the FFA banquet. The TCHS chapter sponsored land judging contests and crop shows, as well as directed traffic for basketball games.

Before the first snow fall, TCHS ski enthusiasts assembled to plan Ski Club activities for the coming season. Under Adviser Philip Krull, this year's club took advantage of Northern Michigan's ski facilities and weather. The Ski Club scheduled two trips this winter; one to Nub's Nob and one to Boyne Mountain, and also viewed a ski-wear style show.

For the second time in four years, the Trojan football team won the LMAC championship. After a slow start in the Mt. Pleasant game, the Trojans went on to win from Alpena, Muskegon, Muskegon Heights, Holland, and Mona Shores.

A tough Grand Haven team upset the overconfident Trojans in a heart-breaking battle. The next week, however, the Trojans revenged their loss. Conference rivals Benton Harbor and Traverse City met, and Traverse emerged with the LMAC trophy.

Next year's Trojan team will miss senior starters Steve Lockman, Bill Myers, Bob Diller, and Gary LaMott. However, several promising juniors, John Swanson, Jerry Stanek, and Larry Yankee among them, should be a great asset.

Varsity football coaches Bob Bacon and Jim Ooley are justifiably proud of the 1964 LMAC trophy, for it is the third time in their seven years as head coaches that they have brought a championship to Traverse City. They have compiled an almost unbeatable record in Class A competition: in their four years in the LMAC, they have won twenty-eight games, lost only five, and tied one.

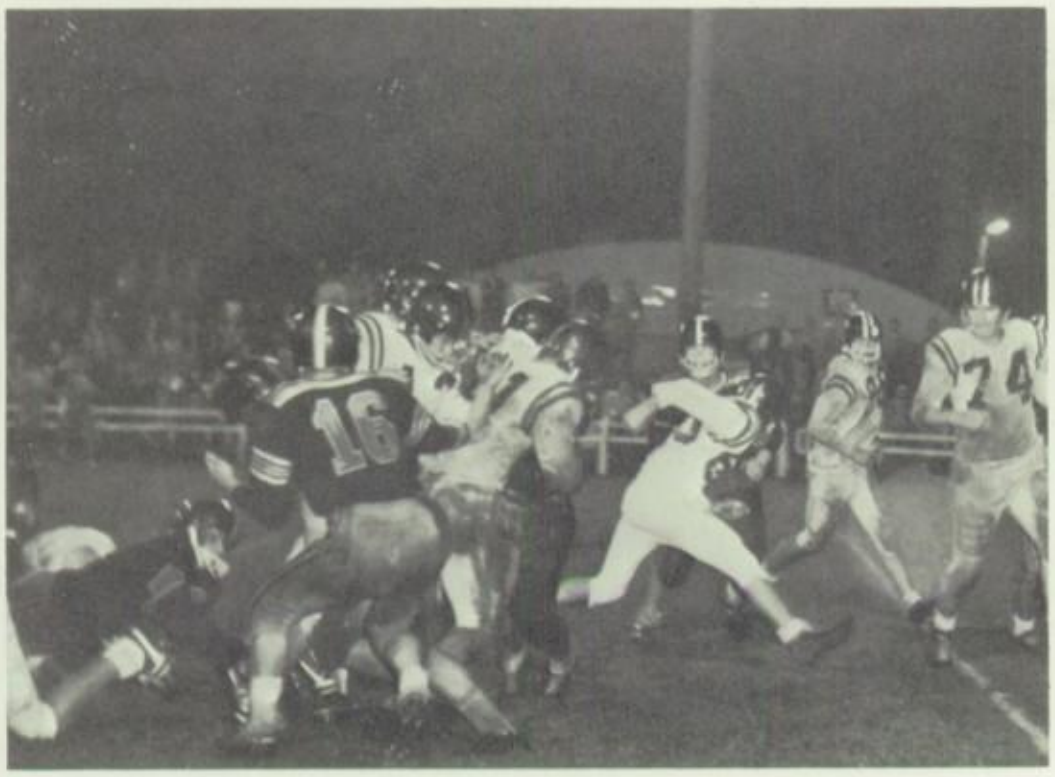
into Two Squads



The prospect of such tough varsity action is the spur that drives the reserve players through all those long, cold practices.

By again splitting the Reserves, the Trojan coaches were able to make better use of some of the talent in the underclass ranks that would not ordinarily get any experience. Instead of having strictly JV and sophomore teams, some of the boys saw action on both squads to balance the weight and skill of the two teams. The two reserve teams did quite well for themselves this season. Coaches Thibedeau, Ebright, Dye, and Salathiel can be proud of their boys.

Cross Country in a Building Year

Cross country, still a fledgling sport in Traverse City, suffered a dismal fifth season. The team was plagued by a series of difficulties. Though Coach Dick Crampton, in his first season as the Cross country mentor, did his best, the team was unable to pull itself back up. However, several team members, including Jon Korb and Russ Fifarek, underclassmen who will be back next year, placed in the Grand Rapids regional meet, 67th and 92nd respectively.

This year's Traverse City team relied heavily on its returning lettermen. Here Coach Crampton starts Russ Fifarek, Mike Allison, and Dick Hults in a practice meet.

Big Bill Naymick takes the jump ball from the Dutch center during the Holland game. Despite outscoring the Dutch from the floor, the Trojans' 36 costly fouls capitalized on by the visitors gave Holland a 74-61 win on February 12. The Dutch swept the series and in this game inflicted the 11th loss on TCHS.

Trojans Fail Against

Nurnburger, and Coach Gillespie. TCHS ended tied for fourth with Muskegon in the tough Lake Michigan Athletic Conference with a 3-7 record, ending 5-13 overall.

This year proved to be a losing one for the Trojan cagers. After a bad start against a fired-up Alpena team, the Traverse City squad didn't seem able to get their feet on the ground. Repeated defeats against conference rivals also dampened spirits. However, the last half of the season the team began to make things click, ending with a five-win, ten-loss record. This year's team was led by Steve Lockman with an average of 19.2 points per game, and Bill Naymick closely following with 12.5. Pat McManus received the Most Valuable Player trophy. Bill, Pat, and John Swanson will form the nucleus of the 1965-6 team.

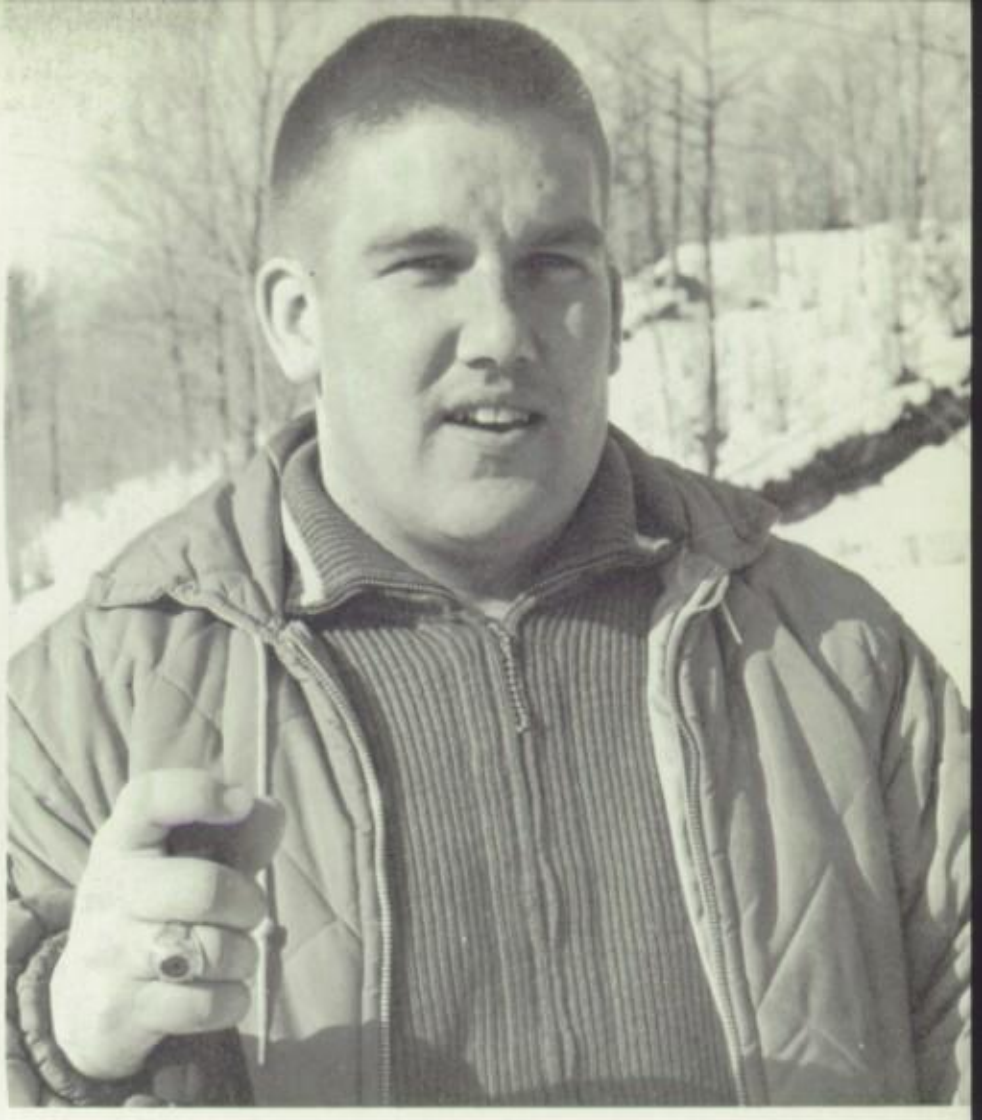
The victorious Trojan boy and girl ski teams consisted of Mgr. D. Hoxie, J. Stanek, D. Ligon, T. Thirlby, J. Owens, T. Bensley, T. Shield, Coach R. Luttinen, L. Hall, S. Jordan, C. Thompson, L. Kyselka, M. VanderWall, N. Ferguson, C. Gibson, and Mgr. J. Downer.

They Did It Again!

For the fourth time since 1961 both the boys' and the girls' ski teams made a clean sweep of the Lower Peninsula High School Regionals. This year's ski teams were two of the best ever, compiling records in keeping with the winning tradition at TCHS. The boys' team captured its sixth consecutive regional title, while the girls added one more to make a total of ten. Besides successfully defending their regional crowns, both teams continued to ski near-perfect records. The boys made it a perfect 18-0 season. The girls lost their first meet in four years, giving themselves a 15-1 record. The male section of the Trojans has lost only two meets since 1961. Next year's teams will miss the excellent services of seniors Nancy Ferguson, Linda Hall, and Dave Ligon, but will retain the rest of the teams, giving Traverse City very good chances in 1966.



Russell P. Luttinen has spent four years as TCHS' ski team coach. During this period he has led the boys' and girls' teams to four straight sweeps of the Lower Peninsula High School Regionals. The teams have had outstanding records since Mr. Luttinen took over. This year the DETROIT NEWS honored Mr. Luttinen with the Coach of the Year Award. Traverse City is indeed fortunate to have him as a coach.

Topping the DETROIT NEWS All-State Ski Team this year were three juniors: Boys' Captain Jim Rennie, who received a second team berth last year, Girls' Captain Cherie Gibson, and Jerry Stanek, both of whom are on for the second time. Cary Thompson and Tom Shield earned positions on the second team, while Nancy Ferguson, Linda Hall, Luana Kyselka, Marge VanderWall, Dave Ligon, and Jim Owens claimed honorable mentions. Cherie Gibson, Jim Rennie, and Jerry Stanek flew to Bend, Oregon, to compete in the National Junior Ski Championships. Linda Hall and Jim Owens won Most Improved Skier awards for their respective squads.

Tennis Fares Well

Tennis fared well in Traverse City this year. With a team consisting mostly of underclassmen, the Trojan netmen managed to finish with a five-win, four-loss season. After losing to Grand Haven and Cadillac, the team managed to come back to beat Petoskey and Leelanau. The Trojans again faced Cadillac and Petoskey, ending with the same results as before. The team did not place high in the conference and regional meets, but individual members did well.

With only one senior, Roland MacEachran, leaving the team, Coach Salathiel should have an extremely good team for 1966. Juniors Mike Hains and Adair Correll and sophomore Harvey Calcutt will form the core of a team that should finish high in the LMAC running.

Coach Schuknecht, W. Avery, R. Wamsley, J. Harrison, J. Alfred, J. Kellogg, J. Wysong, H. Calcutt, B. Wares, J. Stanek, T. Bensley, D. Belyea, and B. Somers make up the TCHS golf team.

Baseball Ends 7—7

Al Lockman's 1965 baseball team played a hard season, but finished with only a 7-win, 7-loss season. The team had the fluctuations that usually mar a record, but most of the defeats were by a narrow margin. One of the year's highlights was a no-hitter pitched by sophomore Ray Collins against Brethren. With a good crop of underclassmen, the 1966 team should be a real success, but seniors Gary Feneley, Earl "Yogi" Hamilton, Russ VanStratt, and Karl VanDeventer will be missed.

Golf Goes Down

Although this year's golf team had power to burn, it only managed to win half its matches. The season went 5-5. Coach Ed Schuknecht expects to do better next year, with the majority of lettermen returning next year. Harry Calcutt, John Kellogg, and Jerry Stanck should form the core for '66. Leaving the team are seniors Don Belyea, Bill Somers, and Ross Wamsley.

Thinclads Unbeaten in Dual Competition

Lee Marnett passes the baton to Sunny Riggs during a relay.

Bob Kortokrax kicks home in the 440.

Track is mainly a sport of individual competition. Although there are several team events, the majority are single contests. Because of the very nature of these contests, it is inevitable that the team be composed of boys excelling by themselves. Many hours of hard work, patience, and self-discipline go into each showing of each event of a track meet. The track team was Bill Myers, Bob Diller, Mike Allison, Lee Marnett, Gary LaMott, Gary Olson and Don Wyatt working for the good of the school.

Bob Diller and Gordy Wilder compete with two J.V.'s in the dash.

The 1965 track team boasted a successful year. Starting with one new coach and a preponderance of underclassmen, the team came from a series of early defeats to finish with a winning season.

The last half of the season was one long string of successes culminating with the L.M.A.C. meet on May 28. Although able to place only third in the meet, Coach Ooley felt that the team had done its best.

This year the cindermen placed sixth in the regionals at Grand Rapids, May 14. Bill Myers, Bob Kortokrax, and Dick Wollam qualified for the state meet, May 22, but were unable to place. Also in the regionals, John Marnett, running the mile, and the Trojan mile relay team both took fourths, one place short of the qualification mark.

The track team has great potential for next year with such juniors as Bob Kortokrax, Gordy Wilder, John Marnett, and Jim Owens, but nothing will make up for the loss of this year's seniors.

Trojan varsity cheerleaders, their coaches Miss Mary Jane Draper and Miss Maxine MacInnis, Muskegon cheerleaders, and their coach get acquainted in the home ec room before a dinner which TCHS cheerleaders prepared. The menu included Italian spaghetti and homemade ice cream. As it promoted friendship among the cheerleaders, it was concluded a big success and placed on the agenda next year for more extensive practice.

Push Pep

The members of the Varsity cheerleading squad this year were Janet Goss, Lynn Klaasen, Carolyn Klotzbach, Barb Martin, and Nancy Hadley, captain. The Trojan squad, heralded as one of the best throughout the state, has a rigorous practice schedule and many other qualifications to meet. This year, for the first time, the squad used eligibility cards. Another first for the squad was attendance at a cheerleading training camp last summer. They were proclaimed Best-Dressed Squad, and Second Best All-Around Squad. In addition to these trophies, Nancy Hadley claimed the trophy for Second Best Individual cheerleader. Congratulations to the Varsity cheerleaders for an excellent job!

The TCHS girls continue sports in the spring with track and tennis. The big event is the annual tri-county track and tennis meet with Pinebrook and Benzie Central. This year Trojan girls copped the track trophy for the second consecutive year. The final score was TCHS 39 1/2 points and Benzie Central with 17 points. Those girls who placed were Kyra Slivinsky, Lynn Decker, Sharon McManemy, June Lentner, Jan Burston, and Jennifer Frye.

The girls' tennis team participated in four meets this year, two with Pinebrook and two with Benzie Central. Because of a lack of experienced girls, the team lost its first three meets, but finally claimed victory in its last meet with Benzie Central.

Academics

Administration Takes

Mr. Robert Johnston heads the administration in his new position as superintendent of schools.

This year the students of TCHS witnessed two changes in the administrative staff. Principal Robert Johnston was initiated as superintendent of schools, while Mr. Eugene Lawler from Leland moved up to replace him. Both men adjusted quickly to their new positions and readily won the students' respect.

Superintendent Robert Johnston supervises the community's educational system which incorporates over three hundred employees. He also acts as the head of the Administrative Board and carries out its policies.

Principal Eugene Lawler represents the school at Administrative Board meetings and at other community functions. Besides working with the heads of the different departments, scheduling and balancing classes, and counseling with parents and students, he spearheads the school's policies.

As business manager, Mr. Garland House acts as the overall financial officer. He handles finances for all school maintenance and transportation.

Mr. Edward Schuknecht, senior attendance officer, issues an absence excuse for a returning student.

the Responsibility

As attendance officers, Mr. Ed Schuknecht, Mr. Al Lockman, and Mr. Dugald Munro shoulder the responsibility of taking attendance and of keeping records in their respective academic wings. Before school and between classes, they issue passes which admit or dismiss students from class and prepare the daily absentee list. In addition, they check on students with continual absences and attempt to prevent further reoccurrences.

English: the Basis

Studying new curriculum materials, evaluating the present curriculum and making recommendations, meeting with consultants, and experimenting, along with teaching five classes each day, were the activities of the thirteen senior high school English teachers. New materials, including tape recordings for teaching reading were developed by sophomore teachers, Mrs. Jane Horvath, Mrs. Jo-Ann Panter, and Miss Susan Stark. Mr. Lyndon Salathiel and Mr. Michael Wisnewski developed a new course at the junior level. Senior English teachers introduced a new class stressing composition.

Delegates attended area, special, and state conferences at Pinconning, Michigan State University, and St. Mary's Lake. Mrs. Wynn Bade was chairman and Mrs. JoAnn Panter a member of a panel discussion group at the annual meeting of the Michigan Council of Teachers of English.

Let There

The CHOIR, directed by Mr. Melvin Larimer, is one of the busiest organizations at TCHS. Their spring production of "Finian's Rainbow" kept up the school's tradition of fine-quality musicals. Full houses enjoyed the Christmas concert, the spring concert, and the smaller concerts. The choir performed with the Northwestern Michigan Symphony in Pachelbel's "Magnificat in C." The ninety-five members traveled to Lansing Sexton to present a program there. The choir elected a choir council, headed by President Bob Purvis and Secretary Norma Bailey, that planned such activities as parties, concerts, and the operetta.

The GIRLS' GLEE CLUB was big in both quantity and quality this year. During the Christmas season they sang for various organizations. Besides presenting excellent Christmas and spring concerts, the glee club aided the choir in the production of "Finian's Rainbow." TCHS heard sounds from the best glee club it's had.

Oom-pah-pah

Director Rodney Cumberworth spent much time with the TCHS band to improve its quality. He held section rehearsals nightly for the different instruments. The best players formed an honors band. The band members elected a band council which directed band discipline with Mr. Cumberworth's aid. Besides marching during football halftimes, the band presented concerts, played in the district festival, played for Traverse City's Christmas Window Night, paraded for Veterans' Day, Memorial Day, and in the Cherry Festival. Individuals competed for honors at the solo-ensemble festival.

New orchestra director Ruth Glaspey led the orchestra through an active year. The orchestra played for the fall scholastic awards assembly, illustrated forms of music at a special humanities concert, presented the annual Christmas and spring concerts, played for "Finian's Rainbow," and played at Class Day. An orchestra sextet, consisting of Jerry Wylie, D'Arcie Oatley, Mark Kortokrax, Tom Killman, Carolyn Fricke, and Tom Edwards, played the concerts and appeared on television with the choir at Christmas. Orchestra member Tom Edwards won the Osterlin Scholarship for the summer at Interlochen Music Camp. Jerry Annis was awarded a two-week scholarship to the camp.

The importance of the modern math program at TCHS increases every year. Its two features over the older method of math teaching, the use of inductive reasoning and teaching for understanding as opposed to rote memorization, make it stand out among the teaching methods used at our school. Making the School Run Smoothly

How many realize the responsibilities of the TCHS school staff? The indispensable secretaries are responsible for correspondence, records, report cards, school budget, payroll, and club accounts for the principal's and superintendent's offices. The custodians keep the school in good order with repairs and maintenance, while the matrons keep it spic and span with their cleaning. The bus drivers transport the students safely to school, where they are re-energized with hearty lunches prepared by the staff of cooks.

Citizens Tie Community with School

The Parent-Teacher-Student Association initiated its year with a get-acquainted night for sophomore parents. A crowd of seven hundred parents attended the traditional November open house where Student Council representatives acted as guides, sold PTSA memberships, and served refreshments. PTSA members served coffee to college representatives during College Night, as well as to the teachers during exam days. Each year the association gives one hundred dollars as an NMC scholarship to encourage continued education.

Underclassmen

Following spirited elections, sophomores learned at the Elections Reflections Dance that they had elected Tom Lardie, president; Ross Overbeck, vice-president; Marg Bellfy, secretary; and Bill Smith, treasurer. The soph class council, aided by Adviser Ron Gray, consisted of Ann Ballance, Ray Collins, Ed Shelby, Bill Wares, and Jim Widrig. Sophs showed an abundance of interest in everything they did. The class council had much cooperation in Pep-a-Rama, the magazine sale, Christmas food drive, which the class won, ordering of class rings, and school activities. Our youngest Trojans formed an integral portion of our clubs, teams, and spirit.

Sophomore class officers and Council are Bill Smith, Ann Ballance, Ed Shelby, Bill Wares, Marg Bellfy, Ray Collins, Ross Overbeck, Jim Widrig, Tom Wilkinson, and Tom Lardie. STANDING is Mr. Ron Gray, adviser.

Junior Class Council is made up of Bob Guyot, Bill Bjork, Bill Woodrow, Adair Correll, Randy Oliver, Jim Batsakis, Dennis Spenceley, D'Arcie Oatley, Dana Hager, Nancy Pestolis. STANDING: Mr. Terry Ebright, adviser.

Class of '66

The juniors fulfilled their patriotic duty by electing Bill Bjork, president; Jim Batsakis, vice-president; D'Arcie Oatley, secretary; and Bob Guyot, treasurer. Class Adviser Terry Ebright aided class council members Adair Correll, Cherie Gibson, Randy Oliver, Nancy Pestolis, and Denny Spenceley.

The juniors' year held many features: the class rings arrived, AFS finalists Rick Stulen and Connie Spencer were chosen, a number of juniors were iniated into the National Honor Society, the Pep-a-Rama was well done, and the prom was a success. The juniors also took part in the Christmas food drive, class plays, and school clubs and activities.

Class of '65 Leaves an

Treasurer Stewart Reed, Vice-President Roland MacEachran, Secretary Linda Hamrick, and President Steve Lockman take a last look at the Class of '65.

The Class of 1965 is Traverse City's first to attend school from seventh through twelfth grades on the present system of separate junior and senior highs, the senior high located on the new campus. Officers John Royce, Elaine Johnson, Shirley Hagelberg, and Sandy Conroy led us during the first of our four years before graduation. Freshmen Ron Heffelfinger and Len Hawley governed the junior high student body. The pep pills that roused junior high enthusiasm were Frosh cheerleaders Margi Budnik, Nancy Hadley, Patti Stokes, Kay Youker, and Judy Gould. We voted Linda Hamrick queen of the freshman prom, "Holiday Abroad."

As low men on the totem pole at the senior high campus, we kept up a whirl of activities and spirit. We elected Ron Heffelfinger, Len Hawley, Jean Bjork, and Elaine Johnson as our soph officers. We made $1700 for our class treasury on the traditional sophomore magazine sale. We defeated the juniors and seniors by bringing the most clothing for Bundle Week. We struggled with indecision over which stone and style we wanted in the class rings we ordered.

Receiving our class rings signaled the beginning of our junior year. Voting was very close for class officers. After a number of ties, Phil Nelson, Mariann Ingwersen, Patti Bloomquist, and Elaine Johnson grasped victories. Again we won Bundle Week. While Sally Smith, John Boquist, and Tim McGrew were semi-finalists, Jean Bjork was a finalist for the AFS exchange program, spending the summer in Turkey. The more experienced seniors edged out the hardy junior girls for the Powder Puff football game on a muddy Thirlby Field. We transformed the school cafeteria into an evening in Paris May 16, for the junior prom, "Champs Elysees." The passing of the senior class gavel into the hands of President Phil Nelson symbolized the transfer of leadership of school government, clubs, and activities into our awaiting hands.

Impressive Mark at TCHS

To set a good example for the admiring underclassmen, we seniors elected Steve Lockman as our president, Roland MacEachran as vice-president, Linda Hamrick as secretary, and Stewart Reed as treasurer. Governor Len Hawley and Lt. Governor Jeff Hayes assumed the responsibility of directing the student council. A special addition to our class were our exchange students: Danish Lone Jacobsen on AFS; Eva Svensson and Toby Sandberg of Sweden, Manfred Sommer of Germany, and Nora King of Uruguay on the Youth for Understanding Program. Demonstrating that '64-'65 was a great year, our boys fought through the football season to become LMAC champs, and the ski teams again claimed the Lower Michigan Peninsula Regional titles! Barb Muse reigned over "Our Fair Lady" Homecoming festivities. "Wunderland bei Nacht," the senior prom, culminated our activities for 1964. The Class of '65 united its efforts in snow sculpture, decorations, skits, and class counts to win Pep-a-Rama. Jean Bjork became the DAR Good Citizen. The Optimist Club of Traverse City honored Rita Sorensen and Brit Sanford as Girl and Boy of the Year for TCHS. Seniors voted among themselves to place mock titles on their classmates: Friendliest--Jean Bjork and Gary LaMott; Best Dressed --Linda Hall and John Royce; Best Athletes--Tron Thompson and Steve Lockman; Done Most for the School--Jean Bjork and Len Hawley; Most Likely to Succeed--Norma Bailey and Len Hawley; Best Dancers--Darlynn Walton and Bruce Jenkins; Most Talented--Mary Rumble and Jeff Hayes; Book Worms--Norma Bailey and Bill Bradford; Most Handsome Boy--Bob Diller; Most Beautiful Girl--Janine Gibeau; Wolf--Jim Harris; Flirt--Linda Swan; Brownnoser--Norma Bailey; Rebel with a Cause--Bill Moulton; Mad Scientist--John Boquist; Wits--Judy Brown and Lee Marnett. We were picking up our graduation announcements about the time we received special invitations to the junior prom, "Sakura Odori." Our last activity as a class before reunions was the graduation march and party.

In the opinions of our counselors, the Class of 1965 is one of the most outstanding classes in academics, attitude, and all-around qualities in recent years.

Casting ballots for mock elections are Tom Grapes, Sharon Mihulka, Dave Easling, Elaine Johnson, Rita Sorensen, Earl Hamilton, and Paul Biederman of the Class Council, while officers Linda Hamrick and Steve Lockman observe.

Closing Up Shop . . .

Well, we're done. We're finished. The yearbook is completed. No more getting up Saturday mornings at 9:00 to go to PINES workshop. Our parents won't have to greet us as strangers any more. John can stop snapping pictures and snapping at people. Editors can stop snapping at John. Jeanne can stop pecking at the typewriter. Mr. Williams can go home after finishing a late deadline. All these unpleasantries will be forever gone.

But yet, all these things played a vital part in the satisfaction of producing the 1965 PINES. A group of young people learned to work together to produce a unified book. A quality book was produced. We all gained a feeling of having given a part of ourselves, of having accomplished something worthwhile.

We made some major changes this year, which provided some new headaches. We expanded by 12 pages, including four more pages of student advertising. We continued the August delivery program started last year. We put a student-designed cover on the book, instead of a stock cover. And finally, we created a student-faculty index, which gives the page numbers of every person's picture in the book. We hope you like these innovations.

As shortcuts are sometimes important in getting to class in five minutes, so were shortcuts necessary to produce the PINES. Many persons helped our book by providing shortcuts. The downtown photographers promptly provided glossies for us. Student photographer John Hawkins and faculty photographer Mr. Munro snapped literally thousands of pictures. Other shortcuts were provided by the Record Eagle, downtown businessmen, the American Yearbook Company, the faculty and administration, and you, the student body. Special thanks and best wishes also go to Sandy Rokos and next year's staff for the working support they gave us. Most of all we'd like to thank our adviser, Mr. A. V. Williams, photographer, copy writer, head writer, page checker, and super errand boy. Thanks for all the shortcuts.

When we started way back in September, we were uncertain. We didn't really know what to do. Now the PINES was our responsibility. We were almost afraid of receiving that first page, for, would it be good enough? It was. Then we wanted more and more, faster and faster. We weren't always sure of meeting our deadlines. We did. Our proofs began to arrive, and we hoped we hadn't made too many mistakes. We hadn't. Now we're done. We have no fears, only that you like it. Do you?

Chou Listens—Red Chinese Premier Chou En-Lai held an earpiece as he listened to an address by the Soviet Union's new party leader, Leonid Brezhnev, during a meeting of world Communists in Moscow on November 6. Alexei Kosygin, Soviet premier, is at right.
